

Acentor Garnacha 2018

D.O. Calatayud

Grapes: 100% Garnacha

90 points

WASHINGTON WINE BLOG

Our Garnacha wine offers aromas of ripe blueberries with a spicy undertone and a fresh, medium-bodied character with soft tannins. The ripe grapes are nearly as good as the wine! Every year we race to harvest the grapes before the acentors, our local, small, brown birds, eat too many.

“From Calatayud, this shows smoky tones that combine with the core of red fruits on the nose. The palate has a good degree of freshness with sour red fruits that dance with minerals and smoky undertones. I really like the combination of tension and weight here, as this excellent value wine is best enjoyed over the next five years. Drink 2020-2025.”

Imported by Grapes of Spain

Selected by Aurelio Cabestrero®

© 2020

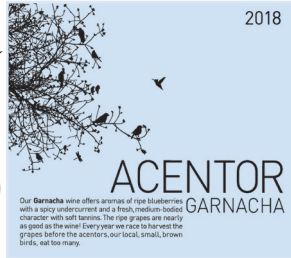

Acentor Garnacha 2018

D.O. Calatayud

Grapes: 100% Garnacha

90 points

WASHINGTON WINE BLOG

Our Garnacha wine offers aromas of ripe blueberries with a spicy undertone and a fresh, medium-bodied character with soft tannins. The ripe grapes are nearly as good as the wine! Every year we race to harvest the grapes before the acentors, our local, small, brown birds, eat too many.

“From Calatayud, this shows smoky tones that combine with the core of red fruits on the nose. The palate has a good degree of freshness with sour red fruits that dance with minerals and smoky undertones. I really like the combination of tension and weight here, as this excellent value wine is best enjoyed over the next five years. Drink 2020-2025.”

Imported by Grapes of Spain

Selected by Aurelio Cabestrero®

© 2020

Acentor Garnacha 2018

D.O. Calatayud

Grapes: 100% Garnacha

90 points

WASHINGTON WINE BLOG

Our Garnacha wine offers aromas of ripe blueberries with a spicy undertone and a fresh, medium-bodied character with soft tannins. The ripe grapes are nearly as good as the wine! Every year we race to harvest the grapes before the acentors, our local, small, brown birds, eat too many.

“From Calatayud, this shows smoky tones that combine with the core of red fruits on the nose. The palate has a good degree of freshness with sour red fruits that dance with minerals and smoky undertones. I really like the combination of tension and weight here, as this excellent value wine is best enjoyed over the next five years. Drink 2020-2025.”

Imported by Grapes of Spain

Selected by Aurelio Cabestrero®

© 2020

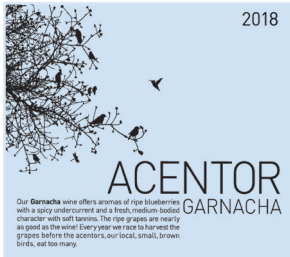

Acentor Garnacha 2018

D.O. Calatayud

Grapes: 100% Garnacha

90 points

WASHINGTON WINE BLOG

Our Garnacha wine offers aromas of ripe blueberries with a spicy undertone and a fresh, medium-bodied character with soft tannins. The ripe grapes are nearly as good as the wine! Every year we race to harvest the grapes before the acentors, our local, small, brown birds, eat too many.

“From Calatayud, this shows smoky tones that combine with the core of red fruits on the nose. The palate has a good degree of freshness with sour red fruits that dance with minerals and smoky undertones. I really like the combination of tension and weight here, as this excellent value wine is best enjoyed over the next five years. Drink 2020-2025.”

Imported by Grapes of Spain

Selected by Aurelio Cabestrero®

© 2020

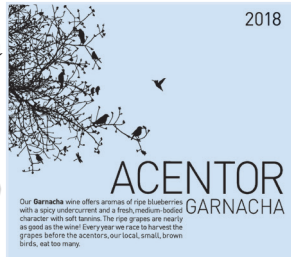

Acentor Garnacha 2018

D.O. Calatayud

Grapes: 100% Garnacha

90 points

WASHINGTON WINE BLOG

Our Garnacha wine offers aromas of ripe blueberries with a spicy undertone and a fresh, medium-bodied character with soft tannins. The ripe grapes are nearly as good as the wine! Every year we race to harvest the grapes before the acentors, our local, small, brown birds, eat too many.

“From Calatayud, this shows smoky tones that combine with the core of red fruits on the nose. The palate has a good degree of freshness with sour red fruits that dance with minerals and smoky undertones. I really like the combination of tension and weight here, as this excellent value wine is best enjoyed over the next five years. Drink 2020-2025.”

Imported by Grapes of Spain

Selected by Aurelio Cabestrero®

© 2020

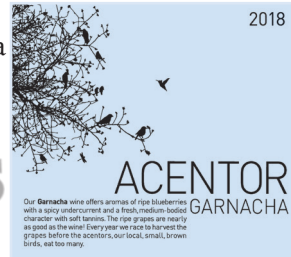

Acentor Garnacha 2018

D.O. Calatayud

Grapes: 100% Garnacha

90 points

WASHINGTON WINE BLOG

Our Garnacha wine offers aromas of ripe blueberries with a spicy undertone and a fresh, medium-bodied character with soft tannins. The ripe grapes are nearly as good as the wine! Every year we race to harvest the grapes before the acentors, our local, small, brown birds, eat too many.

“From Calatayud, this shows smoky tones that combine with the core of red fruits on the nose. The palate has a good degree of freshness with sour red fruits that dance with minerals and smoky undertones. I really like the combination of tension and weight here, as this excellent value wine is best enjoyed over the next five years. Drink 2020-2025.”

Imported by Grapes of Spain

Selected by Aurelio Cabestrero®

© 2020