VIEW FROM THE CELLAR

"...The wine is a pale salmon color and delivers a refined bouquet of wild strawberries, gentle notes of tangerine, chalky soil tones, dried flowers and a touch of bread dough. On the palate the wine is crisp, precise and full-bodied, with a good core of fruit, fine soil undertow, frothy mousse and good length and grip on the complex and nicely balanced finish. To my palate, this might have been even a bit more refined on the backend with a dosage of six grams per liter or so, just to let more of its lovely chalky minerality shine forth on the finish...2025-2035"
