"This is the first 2018 vintage wine I've tasted from Toro, and it has me smacking my lips in anticipation of the wines still to be released... Medium-plus in body, but quite soft in texture, with mostly black-toned fruit flavors... The acidity, oak, tannin and fruit are already quite seamlessly integrated... The wine is utterly flawless, and if that was the same as "perfect," this would earn 100 points rather than 91 — which is the right score for a wine that is impeccably made at this level of complexity and capacity to improve. Trust me...you'll love it..."
