

Gran Vinum Albariño Selección Especial 2023 (White Wine)

Adegas Gran Vinum is a family winery owned by Enrique Pineiro. In 1998 the Val do Salnes subregion was added to D.O. Rias Baixas spurring a renewed focus on quality wines. Adegas Gran Vinum reacted by adding new vineyard plots on steep, sandy, south-facing slopes, near the ocean which minimized temperature swings and extended maturation times giving more spice, saline and fruity varietal character to the wines. Soils in the vineyards are enriched in the traditional manner by digging in shells of local mollusks.

Albariño is the local grape and is known for its ability to ripen in this cool corner of Spain. In addition, it maintains its natural acidity well leading to fresh, balanced wines. Adegas Gran Vinum uses different rootstocks on free-draining slopes as opposed to slightly more fertile plots to assure even ripening.

Reviews:

"Adegas Gran Vinum, Rías Baixas (Galicia, Spain) Albariño "Selección Especial" 2023 ($35): I've never visited this producer despite liking the different releases quite consistently — and always wondering how anybody worked up the nerve to give such a name to a winery! The usual recipe for success is to exceed lowered expectations, but this top bottling from the producer succeeds without needing any adjustment of expectations. It displays unusually impressive physical density for Albariño but without any sense of heaviness, thanks to excellent balancing acidity. Classic fruit notes recalling white peaches are graced with equally classic aromas of white blossoms, along with added complexity from some saline minerality in the finish. Those who enjoy Albariño often know that it need not be expensive, which is great. But they should also be sure to try a truly exemplary rendition at some point — and this is certainly one that fits that bill...while living up to its name."

"The 2023 Albariño "Selección Especial" from Gran Vinum is made from fifty year-old vines and given seven months of aging on its fine lees prior to bottling. The wine offers up a complex bouquet of pink grapefruit, fresh lime, briny notes of ocean breeze, wet stone minerality, a touch of menthol and a topnote of dried flowers. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied and vibrant, with a lovely core of fruit, excellent mineral drive and grip, fine focus and a long, well balanced and complex finish. This is first class Albariño! 2024-2040+."
