

Viña Jaraba Selección Especial 2022 (Red Wine)

Pago de La Jaraba is a family-owned winery built in the heart of La Mancha. While they can trace a history of notable regard for wines grown on the estate back to the mid-1700's their current goal is to produce high-quality, exclusively estate-sourced, flag-waving examples of the new “modern-traditional balanced” wines coming out of Spain. They follow traditional, sustainable methods and farm 80 hectares of vineyards. In addition, they also grow cereal crops – wheat and barley as well as sunflowers, almond, pistachio and olive trees. Finally, they raise their own flock of sheep on estate scrub/forest both to enhance and protect soil quality and for production of artisan Manchego cheese.

Reviews:

“The 2022 Pago de la Jaraba “Selección Especial” comes in at 13.5 percent alcohol in this vintage. The wine’s cépages is seventy percent tempranillo, twenty percent cabernet sauvignon and ten percent merlot. Half of the cuvée undergoes malolactic fermentation in five thousand liter French oak foudres and the wine is raised for one year in smaller French oak barrels, with all of the casks being “two wine” barrels. The wine’s aromatic constellation is deep, black fruity and quite refined, wafting from the glass in a mix of cassis, black cherries, cigar smoke, chalky soil tones, discreet brown spices and a suave framing of new oak. On the palate the wine is pure, full-bodied, focused and complex, with a fine core of black fruit, excellent soil signature, a good chassis of tannin and a long, well balanced and classy finish. There is none of the raisiny endnote here found in the 2024 Cosecha bottling. This is an excellent value. 2030-2060.” 91 points View from the Cellar John Gilman- Issue#123 May-June 2026
