

Legado del Moncayo Garnacha Rosado 2023 (Rose Wine)

Isaac Fernández Selección is a unique collaborative venture between two individuals – Isaac Fernandez one of Spain’s most acclaimed winemakers and Aurelio Cabestrero whose vision and commitment helped bring Spanish wines to the forefront in the United States. They work at rediscovering forgotten regions of superior terroir and maximizing the potential from old vines of indigenous grape varieties in a number of regions.

2013 was the first vintage of Legado del Moncayo, a subtly oaked, old vine Garnacha from Campo de Borja. In 2014 they added an un-oaked Garnacha made from younger vines; a delicious wine priced to be enjoyed every day. In 2015 they expanded the line with a unique expression of Garnacha Blanca, an exceedingly rare grape in the area. Finally in 2016, they produced their first dry Muscat, a highly aromatic, white wine that pairs beautifully with intensely flavored foods.

Reviews:

“The 2023 Garnacha Rosado from Legado del Moncayo is a beautiful deep salmon color. The bouquet is deep, bright and nicely candied in personality, offering up scents of cherries, watermelon, white soil tones, violets and roses. On the palate the wine is vibrant, full-bodied, focused and juicy at the core, with a good spine of acidity, lovely balance and a long, succulent finish. Good juice. 2024-2028.”
