

Legado del Moncayo Garnacha 2024 (Red Wine)

Isaac Fernández Selección is a unique collaborative venture between two individuals – Isaac Fernandez one of Spain’s most acclaimed winemakers and Aurelio Cabestrero whose vision and commitment helped bring Spanish wines to the forefront in the United States. They work at rediscovering forgotten regions of superior terroir and maximizing the potential from old vines of indigenous grape varieties in a number of regions. 2013 was the first vintage of Legado del Moncayo, a subtly oaked, old vine Garnacha from Campo de Borja. In 2014 they added an un-oaked Garnacha made from younger vines; a delicious wine priced to be enjoyed every day. In 2015 they expanded the line with a unique expression of Garnacha Blanca, an exceedingly rare grape in the area. Finally in 2016, they produced their first dry Muscat, a highly aromatic, white wine that pairs beautifully with intensely flavored foods.

Reviews:

“The 2024 Garnacha from Legado Del Moncayo is another fine example of this variety grown on the foothills of extinct Moncayo volcano, on stony and chalky soils. The wine comes in this year at 14.5 percent octane and offers up a deep, complex and nicely meaty nose of black raspberries, fruitcake, grilled meats, garrigue, chalky minerality, cloves and a topnote of distant bonfire. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied, spicy and structured, with fine soil transparency, a good core of fruit, firm tannins and a long, nascently complex and well-balanced finish. This will need a bit of cellaring to soften up, but will be a fine bottle of Garnacha once it is ready to drink. 2033-2060.”
